Anger Management 101

Are you or someone you know prone to anger? Express your anger with an intensity that you later regret? Have anger issues because of a low frustration tolerance? Have a wish to be understood that gets derailed because of your inability to manage your anger? Anger when expressed in an assertive rather than aggressive manner can clear the air of misunderstanding, improve your sense of self and can aid in the restoration and repair of ruptures in relationships at home and at work. This hour will be devoted to: understanding the nature and neuroscience of anger; identify and anticipate the triggers that set off anger; learn strategies to manage those triggers; transform destructive anger into meaningful dialogue in relationships. We will be doing role playing if people are willing to enhance experience of workshop please call with any questions 917-627-6047. Coop member Raymond Reichenberg is a Certified Anger Management Association Specialist and New York State–Licensed Psychoanalyst. He has been in practice in Park Slope for the past 25 years.

Personal Cybersecurity

Password Best Practices. 2018 was a record-breaking year in the number of data breaches and people impacted. Even with these stories constantly in the news people may not be quite sure what steps to take to stay safe. We all have dozens if not hundreds of online accounts we use and it's hard to remember all these passwords, so we often resort to easy-to-remember or reused passwords. In this workshop we'll review the risks of "weak" passwords and tools you can use to protect and organize your passwords at home and on-the-go. Lynn Stabile is a software productivity strategist for small businesses with 20 years experience in the software industry. She's also a maker, cyclist and sometimes musician.

Film Night: Chappaquiddick

The scandal and mysterious events surrounding the tragic drowning of a young woman, as Ted Kennedy drove his car off the infamous bridge, are revealed in the new movie starring Jason Clarke as Ted Kennedy and Kate Mara as Mary Jo Kopechne. Not only did this event take the life of an aspiring political strategist and Kennedy insider, but it ultimately changed the course of presidential history forever. Through true accounts, documented in the inquest from the investigation in 1969, director John Curran and writers Andrew Logan and Taylor Allen, intimately expose the broad reach of political power, the influence of America's most celebrated family; and the vulnerability of Ted Kennedy, the youngest son, in the shadow of his family legacy. Keith Fraase is both a filmmaker and editor whose work has premiered at festivals around the world. He's enjoyed a longtime collaboration with filmmaker Terrence Malick, first on Malick's 2011 Palm d'Or winner and Academy Award-nominated The Tree of Life, and then as lead editor on To The Wonder, Knight of Cups, Song to Song, and the feature IMAX documentary Voyage of Time. His other credits include Chappaquiddick, Palace of Gold, the Netflix Series Dirty Money, and Long Strange Trip, which was shortlisted at the Oscars for Best Documentary.

Safe Food Committee Film Night: FOOD COOP

FOOD COOP explores how ordinary people working together can upend the received wisdom of corporate America. Instead of treating shoppers as cash cows to be milked dry the Park Slope Food Coop believes in making its shoppers real stakeholders expected to shoulder the banal responsibilities that keep the massive machine going: receiving deliveries, cleaning floors and grease traps, putting stickers on produce, shelving cans, cutting cheese, putting spices in bags, scanning and weighing groceries—and standing at the exit to check the receipts of shoppers. It's brutal, simple cooperative commerce—and no grocery store in New York City can touch its success.

See upcoming events, past reviews and a comprehensive list of films shown at www.plowtoplatefilms.com which can now also be reached via a link on the Park Slope Food Coop's home page at www.foodcoop.com.

Deva Salina & Peter Stan; The Jalopy Chorus

Deva Salina & Peter Stan are a small and mighty duo of accordion & voice, traveling through Vintage Pop sounds of Balkan Roma communities. Eva & Peter present soulful, expressive and intimate performances full to the brim with stories, history, insight, humor, melancholy and friendship. In their collaboration, Eva Salina & Peter Stan continue and fortify an interrupted legacy of empowered female voices in Balkan Romani (gypsy) music. Amplifying voices of past generations of Romani women musicians while evolving living traditions, Eva & Peter employ tenderness, grace, passion and a commitment to keeping these songs vital and relevant, while inspiring and teaching young people in the Balkans & Balkan diaspora to participate in their heritage. The Jalopy Chorus is resident vocal ensemble of The Jalopy Theatre & School of Music, led by Musical Director Eva Salina. The chorus explores a variety of international harmony singing, including American, Corsican, East European, and Caucasus Georgian musical traditions.

Concert takes place at the Brooklyn Society for Ethical Culture, 53 Prospect Park West (at 2nd St.), $10, doors open at 7:45. Prospect Concerts is a monthly musical fundraising partnership of the Coop and the Brooklyn Society for Ethical Culture.
