Film Night: In Our Water

In this Oscar- and Emmy-nominated, Columbia duPont Award-winner, a New Jersey family discovers their water well is being poisoned by a landfill. Local and state officials assure them their water is safe to drink, as a five-year saga of bureaucratic neglect and court inaction reveals the Kaler's drinking water could have been bottled as paint remover. The landfill is declared a Superfund site but as of 2019 has yet to be completely "cleaned up." With regulations protecting our water again under attack, In Our Water is both cautionary tale and as Paul Brodeur of New Yorker magazine wrote "A Stirring Call To Action."

Environmentalists, parents, citizens and water drinkers everywhere can benefit from experiencing this exceptional movie. Twenty-year Coop member Meg Switzgable was introduced to the Coop by California Governor Jerry Brown. While still in her early 20s, Meg gathered a creative team that included Barry Sonnenfeld, who went on to direct Get Shorty and Men In Black, Bob Chapell, who shot many of Errol Morris' films including Thin Blue Line and Fog of War, and Mona Davis, editor of Running From Crazy and Advise & Disent. To book a Film Night, contact Gabriel Rhodes, gabrielrhodes@me.com.

Safe Food Committee Film Night: Goddesses of Food

In 2013, Time magazine released an international cover story called "The Gods of Food." Not a single female chef appeared on the list. This documentary changes popular perception. In the male-dominated food universe, discover the women changing the game.

Prominent chefs and journalists investigate what holds women chefs back in the modern world of cuisine and what needs to be done to change the way women in the food industry are viewed and covered in the press. Presenting the best female chefs and introducing rising new stars, Goddesses of Food is a global journey exploring female strength in gastronomy.

Wordsprouts: Bill Mazza & Gina Magid

In an era of political tumult, can we turn to art to soothe our souls? Or is it the sacred task of art to rouse us to action? Are there examples of great art that do both? Two accomplished artists, Bill Mazza and Gina Magid, will share their thoughts and art with us. Mazza's work uses chance, durational, and accumulative operations. His work explores the relationships of people to their environments. At its most practical, this manifests as long-term, volunteer engagement with community-based arts organizations that share both presenting voices of traditionally under-represented communities and a commitment to social change, such as Arts for Art (AFA) and the Belladonna* Collaborative. At its least practical, it results in visual ephemera and artifacts from collaborative and/or performative events, as with the interdisciplinary, improvisational company Revolution Resurrection R&R. Magid is a Brooklyn-based painter who creates psychologically and visually layered imagery in paint, charcoal, satin, and other materials. Through her work, she seeks to express the non-verbal, seemingly illogical undercurrent which connects all things. Her visual language mirrors the friction between the natural world (our instinctive nature) and our conditioning. Magid draws references from film, literature, historical and personal events, from fashion and dreams. Her paintings engage the viewer with universal aspects of the human condition, putting an emphasis on the feminine, or anima, apotheosis of the psyche.
