Food Class: Intro to Ferments

Fermentation is a technique that has been an essential aspect of food preservation for humankind. Presently, it is resurging in popularity as we discover how closely our evolution is tied into the activity of our healthy gut bacteria. We will work with common fermentation techniques and talk about the science and the culinary application of these living foods. Chefs Sung Uni Lee and Dianne De la veux are teaching chefs who work on the administrative team of the Park Slope Food Coop Cooking Class. With a combined 30 years of teaching experience, they will take you step-by-step so that you can confidently and safely create these living foods in your home. Menu includes: Yogurt; Kvass; Sauerkraut. This class is vegetarian and gluten-free.

ASL interpreter available upon request, please contact the Membership Office. Materials fee: $5. RSVPs by June 4 are appreciated, contact bit.ly/FoodClassRSVP. To inquire about leading a Food Class, go to bit.ly/CCCChf1.

Film Night: Becks

Inspired by the real life of singer/songwriter Alyssa Robbins, Becks follows a musician who moves back to her childhood home in St. Louis after a crushing break-up with her longtime girlfriend. While performing for tips at a local tavern and struggling to reconnect with her ultra-Catholic mother, she strikes up a unique friendship with the wife of an old nemesis. Becks begins to discover her musical voice as she performs deeply personal songs about her ex and the loss of their relationship. Driven by an original score, the film's musical numbers bring a unique new voice to the American musical movie. Director / Writer / Producer Elizabeth Rohrbach is a writer and director based in NYC. Her documentary, The Perfect Victim, was on the PBS series America Reframed after premiering at the Hot Springs International Film Festival. The film won a Telly Award and was nominated for a Silver Gavel Award. Her short film, Dylan, saw a successful festival run and was named Vimeo Short Of The Week and a Vimeo Staff Pick. Liz was a writer/director at MTV, where she won an Emmy Award and multiple CTAM Awards. Her work has been featured on The Takeaway with John Hockenberry, Glamour magazine, Verily magazine, Psychology Today, The Progressive, Indiewire, and the Feminist Current. To book a Film Night, contact Gabriel Rhodes, gabrielrhodes@me.com.

Safe Food Committee Film Night: The Birth of Sake

In a world where mass-produced goods are automated, a small group of laborers brave unusual working conditions to preserve the 2000-year-old tradition of making saké, living and working for a six-month period at Yoshida Brewery, a 144-year-old family-owned small brewery. The Birth of Saké is a documentary that reveals the passionate story of what it takes to make world-class saké. Currently, stiff competition and the eventual retirement of experienced workers intensify the pressure of preserving quality, tradition and brand reputation. Surrounded by 1,000 competitors, Yoshida must surface as a worthy contender in a market overrun by choices. See upcoming events, past reviews and a comprehensive list of films shown at www.plowtoplatefilms.com which can now also be reached via a link on the Park Slope Food Coop's home page at www.foodcoop.com.

Brilliant Pixels: Tackling Your Digital Photo Overload

This is Part One of a two-part series. It's easy to feel overwhelmed by the thousands of photos we accumulate on our phones and computers—especially when you want to record every cute thing your kids do! The cause is simple math: parent + smartphone = taking pictures of your kids—constantly. Isabelle Dervaux, photo curator and organizer, will share her three most powerful secrets to tackling the photo clutter on your iPhone and Mac. You'll learn to: find photos like magic; the quickest way to make albums; make pain-free decisions about what to keep and what to let go; use the one shortcut that changes everything. Coop member Dervaux uses her artist's eye and sensibility to help busy New Yorkers tell their family stories; empowering them to organize, rediscover, and curate their photo collections so they can be passed on to the next generation.

Safe Food Committee Film Night: One Man, One Cow, One Planet

One Man, One Cow, One Planet exposes globalization and the mantra of infinite growth in a finite world for what it really is: an environmental and human disaster. But across India, marginal farmers are fighting back. By reviving biodynamics, an arcane form of agriculture, they are saving their poisoned lands and exposing the bio-colonialism of multinational corporations. One Man, One Cow, One Planet tells their story through the teachings of an elderly New Zealander many are calling the new Gandhi. See upcoming events, past reviews and a comprehensive list of films shown at www.plowtoplatefilms.com which can now also be reached via a link on the Park Slope Food Coop's home page at www.foodcoop.com.
